People coming in from Akron

I'm not particularly a hypnotist

You don't know the human mind until you've gotten inside it

The book had mechanical methods pinwheels turning mechanical system

A lot of people just didn't believe that there was such a thing as hypnosis

A power of the human mind they would not like to admit to point out that everyone is hypnotized all the time you wonder after they left how they did it exact technique

Santanelli

we're going to reprint it archives in Washington DC.

Xeroxed it

one of the most outstanding books written on it there's an absolute lack of any good books on hypnosis

There's a strong suspicion that the human being is not a free agent if the hypnotist at the turn of the century lynch mob out for every hypnotist tinkering with a girl when she was under hypnosis they want to believe first realize that you are not a free agent awareness of the effect the thing is having on your mind.
certain types of art first finding freedom by studying the human mind and knowing the tricks you play on yourself you can sure shut the door between your physical consciousness and the spirit mechanical methods laborious process
tiring of the eyes TV - nine chances out of ten it's post-hypnotic suggestion if you see it done, then it's like a domino theory in the process
I didn't have to stick them with a needle I became aware of their mind
This is what I mean by direct-mind hypnosis Chautauquas down on the farm This wouldn't happen unless I was pretty sure of myself I would say, "You have a headache." you're getting into rapport with your subject rapport is the threshold of direct-mind sensitivity session shotgun rapport beyond the mundane difficulties of the hour these don't happen mechanically a big thing today on auto-hypnosis more dangerous

you could get hurt if you were alone outfit in Canada offshoot of the Gurdjieffian movement

Rolfe Alexander

Any time that you have to chant a repetitious sound people are escaping from reality

I went through a bunch of esoteric groups nearly all auto-hypnotic one in Pittsburgh, concentrate up hear [gap in tap]

so engrossed with the smooth - willing to donate reality itself is not reality instead of trying to find

hunting another dream like children playing with dolls there' not going to be any entertainment at somebody's expense ability to regress people go right back to their infancy hypnotize them and sk them the same set of questions they will become really amazed that this can be brought out clear back to prenatal conditions

Ron Hubbard

psychic scars or psychological scars clear them as these scars the kingdom of heaven is just peace of mind auditing

exploring your past sit and think about your traumas find out what has poisoned our system cults

Tibet hypnotize at a distance mahatmas

find themselves on the floor, crying and blubbering may take ten years studying shakti

Gurdjieff

Meher Baba

healers that come out of Tibet ...
